Over The Rainbow

Selected lyrics by E.Y. Harburg

When all the world is a hopeless jumble
And the raindrops tumble all around
Heaven opens a magic lane.

When all the clouds darken up the skyway
There's a rainbow highway to be found
Leading from your window pane
To a place in the sun
Just a step, beyond the rain.

Someday I'll wish upon a star
And wake up when the clouds are far behind me
Where troubles melt like lemon drops
Away above the chimney tops
That's where you'll find me.

Somewhere over the rainbow, bluebirds fly.
Birds fly over the rainbow,
Why then, oh why can't I?

Someday I'll wake and rub my eyes
And in that land beyond the skies, you'll find me.
I'll be a laughing daffodil
And leave the silly cares that fill my mind, behind me.

If happy little bluebirds fly beyond the rainbow,
Why, oh why can't I?
